"After heavy fighting the western wing of the Allies is advancing near Lassigny.

"The German attack on the center and the eastern wing has been repulsed.

"In Lorraine and the Vosges there is little activity."

ALLIES CLAIM SUCCESSFUL TURNING

German Embassy Hears That French Are Weakening Under Great Strain

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—Statements from the German embassy here and news from Berlin by direct wireless agree that the French offensive spirit is weakening in the face of the terrific strain of the last few days. Their losses are said to be enormous. It is declared that the French center is retreating.

The bombardment of Verdun by the Germans is asserted to be progressing satisfactorily. The effect of the heavy mortars upon the fortifications is tremendous.

Midshipman Three Times Rescued

LONDON, England, Sept. 23.—A remarkable story is brought from the North Sea by survivors of the three cruisers sunk in battle with submarines. One diminutive midshipman aboard the Aboukir is said to have jumped from the deck of this cruiser when she was sinking. He swam clear and was rescued by the cruiser Hogue. The Hogue shortly after began to sink and again the midshipman jumped into the sea, this time being picked up by the Cressy. As the Cressy went down he jumped again and this time was picked up by a British destroyer and brought safely ashore uninjured.

Three Submarines in Fight, Say British

LONDON, England, Sept. 23.—Survivors of the North Sea naval engagement in which the British cruisers were sunk by the German submarines say that three submarines attacked the British vessels. Of these three, it is declared, the cruiser Cressy sank two while she herself was sinking.

The three cruisers were obsolete and were brought from the reserve for special duty.

Germany Claims One Submarine Did It

BERLIN, Germany, Sept. 23.—Berlin is rejoicing greatly over the naval victory in which German submarines destroyed three British cruisers. Sailors who were chafing at the inaction of the German fleet are now reconciled to the higher strategy by its results.

The German admiralty says that the submarine U-9 single-handed sank the cruisers.

Say Austrian Cruisers In Sebenico, Badly Damaged

[Associated Press service by Federal Wireless.]
ROME, ITALY, SEPT. 23.—FISHERMEN FROM DALMATIA REPORT THAT THE CRUISERS MARIA THERESA AND ADMIRAL SPAUN HAVE PUT INTO SEBENICO BADLY DAMAGED.

Sebenico is a small coast port of Dalmatia, Austria. The two cruisers that apparently have figured in a sea battle and been seriously damaged are Austrian vessels. The Admiral Spaun is the more modern vessel of the two—built in Pola, launched in October, 1909, and completed in 1910. She is of 3500 tons, 411 feet over all and has 21,000 indicated horsepower, her best speed being given as 27 knots. She has a complement of 320 men, carries a 2½ inch armor belt and seven 4.1 inch guns, two three-pounders and two torpedoes.

The Maria Theresa was built at San Rocco in 1893 and refitted in 1907. Her displacement is 5,200 tons and complement 420 men. Present best speed, over 17½ knots. Length over all 374 feet, four-inch armor belt and carries the following guns: Two 7.6-inch, eight 6-inch, 14 three-pounders, two machine guns, four torpedo tubes.

WILLIAM L. WELSH SUED FOR $5514 BY M. P. MORANHA

Mounted Policeman Asks Damages for Injuries in Collision With Party of Autoists

William L. Welsh, chauffeur, who has gained considerable unpleasant notoriety during the past two years, is made the defendant in a suit filed yesterday afternoon in the circuit court by Manuel P. Moranha, who asks damages to the amount of $5514 for injuries suffered and expense incurred through being thrown from his horse, which was struck by an automobile driven by Welsh and carrying a party of riders.

The complaint, filed by Thompson, Wilder, Milverton & Lymer on behalf of the plaintiff, recites at considerable length the incident of the night of July 16 last when Moranha, a mounted police officer, was patrolling Kalaheua avenue in the vicinity of the John Ena road at about 3 a. m., and his horse was struck by Welsh's car, and the plaintiff injured to such an extent that he was removed to the Queen's hospital where his life was despaired of for some time.

It is alleged in the complaint that Welsh was "driving and operating said automobile at a high and unlawful speed."

GRAND JURY MAY MAKE PROBE IN DISTRICT COURT

Judge Ashford Intimates That He Will Ask Investigation of Cases on Appeal

Judge C. W. Ashford has intimated that he is considering the advisability of asking the territorial grand jury to investigate the reason lying at the bottom of the system of flooding the circuit court with trivial causes, upon demands for a jury trial, when the defendants are arraigned in the district court. The expense to the defendants is much increased, especially in the matter of attorney's fees, by substituting the circuit for the district court, in trying these small cases. It is intimated that possibly the selfish interests of the attorneys are permitted to outweigh at once those of the city treasury and those of the defendants. This alleged "system" has apparently been in operation the last two or three years.

SENSATIONAL REPORT SAID TO HAVE BEEN MADE BY GRAND JURY

A sensational report of its investigation of the Walkiki Inn and the reported "kidnaping" of a witness to prevent his appearance before the liquor license committee is believed to have been made to Circuit Judge C. W. Ashford by the territorial grand jury this afternoon. A partial report was filed, but after a conference with City and County Attorney Cathcart the court decided that its release at present would be inadvisable.

It is generally understood, however, that a further report is nearly ready, and a rumor around the Judiciary building today is that the later report carries two or three indictments.

John T. Scully, former manager of Walkiki Inn, and Motorcycle Officer Wilmet R. Chilton have been before the jury as material witnesses.

In a statement made some time ago by John H. Fischer, he indicated that he was "spirited away" from the city to prevent his giving testimony before the liquor license commission as to law violation at Walkiki Inn, and Judge Ashford in his charge to the grand jury some weeks ago called upon that body to probe the alleged "kidnaping."

LIGHTFOOT AND M'BRIDE IN TILT IN M'CARN CASE

Chief Witness for Prosecution Says He Is Not Anxious to See Defendant Convicted

"Stop!" This exclamation, shouted by Attorney Joseph Lightfoot, punctuated on many occasions the testimony which Claudius H. McBride gave in the circuit court this morning at the time of his cross-examination by the defense as to his version of his affair with District Attorney Jeff McCarn in the corridor of the federal building the afternoon of May 5. The cross-examination of McBride was completed at 11:05 o'clock.

Attorney Lightfoot and McBride reached loggerheads on several occasions as to the manner in which the latter answered the questions which were put to him.

"I can only answer that question in my own way," was the answer given by McBride when frequently asked to reply "yes" or "no."

"Well, we don't like your way," objected the attorney for the defense.

Attorney Lightfoot declared to the court that in answering certain questions, McBride was endeavoring to address the jury.

"I don't care what this witness says either for or against the jury," he said.

Advised McCarn Carried Gun. During the examination, McBride stated that he had been informed by several reputable attorneys that McCarn carried a gun and to watch out for him.

"I had the idea that McCarn was a fighting Tennessee because he frequently invited attorneys to come outside and settle things in a moment," said McBride.

In answer to a question the witness replied that Attorney L. Straus was one of those who had given him this information.

"Is Leon Straus reputable?" queried Lightfoot, with evident surprise.

"He is, compared with some other"
